Response

1. Applicant's response filed on 2/27/2008 has been received and made of record.
2. Claims 1-5 are allowed.
3. after further reviewing claims 6-15, the claims are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter (see below).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

3. Claims 6--11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Specifically, claim 6 appears to be drawn to a "computer program product" comprising solely program components and are therefor non-statutory subject matter. Thus the claims are directed program per se

Claims 7-10 are also rejected as inheriting the same deficiency through their dependency. Appropriate correction is required.

4. Claims 11-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Specifically, claim 11 appears to be drawn to a "apparatus " consisting of program components and are therefor non-statutory subject matter.

Claims 7-10 are also rejected as inheriting the same deficiency through their dependency. Appropriate correction is required.

Specification

5. Claims 6-10, the claims include claim language such as "computer program product" which lack proper antecedent in the specification (see below).
6. The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o). Correction of the following is required: The subject matter "computer program product" in claims 6-10 lacks proper antecedent in the specification

Also, the subject matter "computer readable medium" in claim 6 lacks proper antecedent in the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

7. Claim 16 recites the limitation "the program" in line 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Salad Abdullahi whose telephone number is 571-272-4009.
